

MARK'S GREAT CAREER

Made in FLORIDA

...in Florida manufacturing

After High School Mark went straight to college where he earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy. After having a variety of jobs, he soon found something he enjoyed in the world of manufacturing. He started out as an Applications Programmer and through hard work and dedication he was able to achieve much success and became the Vice President for a top medical manufacturing company in Florida.

Mark's entire career pathway, click here.

"There's no right way to your dream job."

Engineering Technology Education

Find a school...

Choose your path...

How do I get there?

